Left — The Handley-Page contestant for the $50,000 prize for a transatlantic flight on its final test in England. The plane is now being assembled at St. John's, Newfoundland.

The first seal ever seen on the shores of the Middle Atlantic States was recently caught on the New Jersey side of Delaware Bay by the small boy on the left. The adventurous explorer from the arctic north had evidently escaped a previous attempt at capture on his wanderings, as he was slightly wounded.

Sir Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scouts, arrives in Boston with Lady Baden-Powell, Chief Guide of the English Girl Scouts. They will tour the East in the interests of the Girl Scouts.

A new parachute basket, of the 58th Balloon Co., whose mechanism is a vast improvement over the old method. The pulling of a rope releases the basket from the balloon and at the same time opens the parachute.

The latest photograph of the fighting commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, General John J. Pershing. We agree with "Black Jack's" son Warren that his dad is a "hard man to fool."
